Nonna's VINI "XII"

Since the last wine menu was introduced, we have had the pleasure of welcoming some fantastic producers to Nonna's including Marilisa Allegrini from Allegrini, Leonilda Pieropan from Pieropan and Franz Haas from Franz Haas.

The biggest change to this wine menu is the section entitled:

"Italians NOT in Italy." Great Italian producers, who at some point left Italy, but took their beloved grape vines with them and have set up wineries which are producing outstanding Italian grape varietals with a bit of a different taste.

This list has been compiled with passion, so whether you're starting out on the great wine road or a seasoned palate, please explore our wines on the list and try the grape varieties you have not heard of before; pleasant discoveries are only a sip away.

This is our eleventh wine menu and is improving year after year, so read, try and please ask us for recommendations; experimenting with food and wine matches is part of the learning experience.
